Customer Reviews

The Death of Money is interesting as it breaks down an understanding of economic collapse and what you may see depending on how far things may go individually or as a community. The strategies give readers a sense of how they can survive even when it seems tough. By planning ahead, the stress of financial dependence in hard times seems more manageable. From there, Debt Free goes further into the ways to plan and decrease your financial dependence through strategies and methods that will get you debt free. It will also educate you if you are 18 and starting out before falling into the credit card trap.

By reading this book, you'll surely gain enough knowledge about economy than you care to know. Which in turn will better prepare for the rainy days to come. Don't ignore this! If you can, then take this as a warning. Cause when the economy is going down, it's taking you along. That's how the nature is, and all of a sudden you don't know what to do. Cause what is supposed to make money, turns out to be a death trap.

Discusses something that we should be aware of. Anyone can use this information.
