Synopsis

"COLLECTION I: Joseph Nketia was better than your average assassin. His creativity and effectiveness had earned him an invitation to play with the big boys—the ones who pull the puppet strings of world leaders. COLLECTION II: Mario Fuerza had lived a charmed life, born into a rich Dominican family, attending university in New York City. Then his life change to impossibly better. All he had to do was to help David Rockwell commit the crime of the century. COLLECTION III: Killing was easy, the hard part was getting away with it. Unless you're a 25 year old killer of killers. Eloise killed the girl- her original assignment. But then she got drafted to something much more deadly: working as a CSI attempting to find the killer. When she gets to the crime scene she discovers that someone has moved her body, placing it in a different spot and leaving her strange notes. The chief suspects her, the other techs loathe her very presence, and officer Peter is pulling the wire at her underused heart strings, making her question her abilities."
