Gone World: A Young Adult Post Apocalyptic Dystopian Series (Gone World Series Vol.1)

Synopsis

Days of hell have fallen upon the earth. Everything from pollution to an overwhelming number of natural disasters can accept blame for the planet's demise. Only the strong have survived, and a line has been drawn separating those lucky enough to persevere. They have either become wicked past the point of return, or have become despondent about going on any further. Jaden Lorel has come to one conclusion. Everything is gone. There are no safe havens anymore, only darkness to fill his souls and despair to keep him company. To think something could have survived is unfathomable to most. But when he comes across information about a stable location, he must put aside his doubts and fears in order to find a way to live again. You may think "ah something like this will never happen", but take this story into account. Who knows, one day you could be in the same predicament. Find what you love in this world and hold onto it, because one day it might be gone.

Customer Reviews

This book was riveting. It had me on the edge of my seat the entire time. A definite page turner! I recommend this book for the SyFy Lover!

Good story of the end of the World as we know it. Where will we go to find food/water/shelter and piece as it falls apart around us. Join in the journey as we try to find the answers.

I couldn't stop reading! Hope there are more. Cindy is my favorite character. She is a great companion. Thank you

I really enjoyed this story! I can't wait to get into the story some more. Easy to get into and keeps you going.

Great read. Can't wait for the rest of the series.

Gone World takes you to a time when human excess has ruined the earth. Danger abounds for the survivors as they try to find a safe space to begin again. Ham does an excellent job of capturing your imagination as you follow Jade's quest. I had a hard time putting this one down and I'm looking forward to the next installment.

Besides a few grammatical errors, and in a few places the story seems to skip, its brilliant. It paints a picture in the minds eye of what could happen, while giving the reader a distopian image to explore in the minds eye. It did seem hurried, as id the writer were racing towards the finish line. Looking forward to the continuation. Would certainly read more

BÃfÃ Ã Ã«lal Ham captures the very essence of humananity in this book. Many emotions and feelings were felt while reading. BÃfÃ Ã Ã«lal Ham is an up and coming writer who I can't wait to read more of his work.
