Praise for the Mrs. Madoff series: ST. PATRICK'S DAY: "It's exactly the same scene that's played out in elementary schools across the country every March, and as such it will be sweetly familiar to readers—it will be deservedly welcomed by teachers in many settings." This welcome addition to the series clearly outlines the importance of this day in March on which everyone is Irish. (School Library Journal) Praise for the Mrs. Madoff series: MOTHERS DAY: "A mother-daughter team adds to a winning streak of classroom books centering on young children's preparations for important days with this celebration of mothers... The kids from Mrs. Madoff's classroom "a charmed place" (Kirkus Reviews) are preparing for a brand-new school year! New is exciting! But it can also be scary. What will school be like this year? Get ready to share in the excitement of the first day of school with friends old and new!

Wonderful book for children starting K or 1st grade. Great illustrations.

Good book!

Love it!!!

Love Rockwell's books! Always a nicely written story with great illustrations.

I haven't been introduced to the books of the lady Rockwells yet, but after this one I cannot wait to get a stack of others. (It appears this one was published in hardcover in 2011) This is a fabulous and reassuring story with preparations for a new school year. It is culturally diverse and full of friends. The illustrations are wonderful and there is plenty for discussion in these pages. Thanks to HC.
