Ian Kerr is a full time police officer, and his keen interest in motorcycles, Harley-Davidson in particular, has made him extremely knowledgeable, allowing him to work as a motorcycle journalist in his spare time. Excellent

The book was in perfect shape.....i was disappointed that the book said that it covered bikes through 2010. It really stops in 2000, the rest just comments on the other years. I was looking for information on 2004 to 2009 model. I don't blame the dealer.....just not quite true advertising.

Nice looking book...but that is where it stops. The binding broke as soon as I opened the cover. Very cheaply made. I gambled that my experience would not be similar to other reviews I had read...wrong. I would not recommend this book at all.

I bought this for my father who is a Harley enthusiast. It is a great coffee table size book and he and his friends enjoy looking at it while hanging out at his house. It has a lot of history about Harleys and includes many historic photographs. A great gift for someone who loves Harleys, but has one too many Harley t-shirts.

Awesome book for the price!

Just as described. No issues.

The book was full of pictures and info on Harley Davidson bikes.

This is an awesome book !!! Everything about Harleys is in there from early vintage to modern day streamlined bikes. If you have a question about Harley-Davidson motorcycles, I highly recommend this book .....it's in there !
