Nurturing Faith (Chasidic Heritage Series)

Synopsis

This is the 16th volume of the popular Chassidic Heritage series. It is based on the Rebbe's renowned Ata Tezaveh maamer. This maamer was delivered on the 10th of Adar I 5741, and was given out by the Rebbe on Erev Purim Katan, 5752. The maamer is largely based on the maamer of the Friediker Rebbe VeKibel HaYehudim from 5687, which is referred to throughout. It was the last maamer given out by the Rebbe, and is thought amongst Chassidim to be the Hiskashrus maamer, both in terms of its content, and considering the fact that these were the last words the Rebbe "gave over" to us. The theme, as states the title, is "nurturing faith". Exploring this subject through the lens of chassidus invokes a deep understanding of a Jewish leader, a nasi, who's function is, as explained in the maamer, essentially to nurture the faith of the Jewish people. Corresponding to the sefirah of daa's, a Jewish leader provides a potential for one's otherwise superconscious faith to become internalized and thus materialized in everyday life. This dynamic has been illustrated throughout our history, when during times of extreme duress, our leaders aroused and awakened our essential, yet supra-conscious faith. Manifesting in our incredible mesiras nefesh, these brazen displays of emunah were necessary for our survival. Our challenge now, says the Rebbe, is to awaken and internalize this mesiras nefesh related emunah in our present times of freedom and abundance. Here too, explains the Rebbe, it is the nasi who generates this reality, if we only allow ourselves to connect through him.

The latest addition to the Kehot Publication Society's "Chasidic Heritage Series", Nurturing Faith: A Landmark Discourse By The Lubavitcher Rebbe was originally delivered in 1981. Rabbi Schneerson was a true leader of his community and a man who inspired his follower so serve G-d with passion under all circumstances, from times of oppression and hardship, to times of complacency and prosperity. The central message is the importance a leader plays in facilitating such a level of faith under any and all societal conditions. Indeed, a leader not only nurtures the faith of his people, but that faith is powerful not because it is an abstraction, but a catalyst leading to action -- and action leads to the strengthening both the individual and the community. A welcome and seminal addition to Judaic Studies in general, and Chasidic Studies in particular, Nurturing Faith is ably translated and annotated by Rabbi Yosef Marcus, and is enhanced with additional annotation by Rabbi Ari Sollish.
