When backyard sluggers Brother and Sister join the Bear Country Cub League, they get real uniforms and play on a baseball field. They also have pressure to win and competition from the other cubs. But it's Mama's advice that helps them prepare sensibly for team sports.

Stan and Jan Berenstain were already successful cartoonists for magazines and adult humor books when they began writing children's books. The first story starring the bear family, The Big Honey Hunt, appeared in 1962. Since then, more than 360 Berenstain Bears books have been published, and more than 300 million copies have been sold. What began as an idea sparked by their young sons' love of reading has become one of the best-selling children's book series ever.

My son loves these books.

This is a great book. My three year old loves baseball and this story is one of the consistent ones before bedtime. We have a Berenstain Bears collection and this book along with "Too much Junk Food" and "Got The Gimmies" keep showing up in mommy's story time chair.

My 5 and 6.5 year old love these books (I love that they have good values and they are Christian books)

I purchased this book for a 3 year old nephew of my girlfriend. At one point the sister bear calls brother bear out for being "sexist", which I think is a very valuable lesson, however might be a little more difficult to teach to a young mind. Otherwise the book covers a lot of great lessons on patience and what goes into trying out for a team. They also go over some of the trickier rules of Baseball which is cool.

This book had me on the edge of my seat from start to finish! Do Sister and Brother make the team??? You'll have to buy the book to find out!

My six year old grandson is a big fan of both baseball and Berenstain Bears. He picked this up immediately and read it in one sitting. A classic!

I love being able to share a tradition from my childhood with my kids: reading all the Berenstain Bears books!

Enjoyed it!! always like reading the bear family books. I will certainly read more and more and more. Thank you
