Customer Reviews

"What could be more important than a book that revolves entirely around beautiful salads? Now, more than ever, we need to focus on simple, fresh, pure food--and Tasha has been a vital part of this delicious revolution. It is her fine-tuning of taste that makes this book so valuable. " --Alice Waters "If you really want to know how to make a good salad, look no further. Tasha DeSerio is the teacher you need. Tasha is one of my favorite cooks, and here she offers her experience, common sense, and artistry to the finer points of salad-making. No one does it better. Brava!" --David Tanis, author of "A Platter of Figs," and "Heart of the Artichoke" "Tasha set a new gold standard with her salads at Chez Panisse. This book reveals her secrets. It is a delight to have access to her recipes, ripe with good advice from a seasoned chef. Her skills and sense of humor will make you run to the market and start cooking." --Judy Rodgers and Gilbert Pilgram, owners of Zuni Cafe "Finally, dinner salads get the respect they deserve! Tasha's recipes are fresh and appealing and her tone encouraging. Each recipe features simple but brilliant ingredient pairings, assuring that dinner salads are never boring again. With gorgeous photos and generous tips and sidebars, "Salad for Dinner" is a must-have cookbook that manages to be practical and inspiring, too." --Susie Middleton, editor-at-large for "Fine Cooking" magazine and author of Fast, Fresh & Green "If you love 'fresh' like I do, you'll be inspired by Tasha's salad book. Just reading it made me want to run to the farmers' market. The only problem--every recipe sounds more delicious than the last, so it's difficult for me to decide which salad I want to make first!" --Joanne Weir, Chef, James Beard award-winning cookbook author, and host of the PBS show Joanne Weir's Cooking Confidence "Having worked with Tasha at Chez Panisse for years, it's no wonder that her book, "Salad for Dinner," is as wonderfully composed as the delicious foods

These recipes will please everyone in the family....even your pickiest eaters...perfect for the summer and with soups will take you into fall and winter. You get your moneys worth with this one.

I'm a good cook, and I usually feel I have to improve on recipes. Not so for this cookbook! Try the corn and tomato salad-- fantastic!

Wonderful book. The salads combine interesting ingredients and are not only tasty but good for you. I look forward to using it all year round/

Amazing array of delicious recipes.

So so recipes

After seeing this book at the library, I couldn't wait to have a copy of my own. The recipes are fantastic. Now salads are no longer boring at my house! I am a vegetarian and found many great recipes. I have only tried four so far, but will continue. The dressings are great too!

Well salad... I guess I was looking for some miraculous, you will now love salad book. No, I still don't LOVE salad, I like it though. This book really didn't make me want to rush out and get any ingredients. I looked through the book on a couple different occasions hoping each time I would see some recipes that made me go Wow, I love this book or Wow, I want to make that. No, my expectations weren't met. Maybe, they were too high. But in all fairness, it's difficult to buy a cookbook without seeing it in your hands. All told, I will be selling this book to a reseller.

Disappointed...
