Customer Reviews

Solid book that served me well. A few notes:-The Museum of Image and Sounds in Copacabana is not yet open as of April 2017; however, the book says it is open and recommends going.-Seems to be missing information on key day trips, like to Petropolis, and lacks information on other nearby attractions like Paraty, Ilha Grande, and Buzios. If you plan on going to these destinations while in Rio, I would recommend getting a more general book on Brazil.-As of July 2016 (post-publication), the subway line 4 to Jardim Oceanico is open.

Great details

Well written, easy to use. Good maps

Lonely Planet are the best travel books. Excellent value. Prompt shipment in fine condition.

I loved this little book! It was our constant companion on our first visit to the beautiful country of Brazil. Whenever we needed to find a nice place to eat or visit, we checked with our guide, the Rio de Janeiro book. I definitely recommend this book. It is easy to find details that you need and if you follow the recommendations you won't go wrong!

Very good guide
