Synopsis

When it's time to go back to the daily grind, it's easy to miss the fun and excitement of vacation &#151; especially if you've just spent time in a city like New York. Home to remarkable landmarks like the Empire State Building, a vibrant counterculture centered in neighborhoods like the East Village and Williamsburg, and the quieter pleasures of places like Central Park, it's the type of place that inspires anyone who visits. And its unforgettable skyline makes it perfect for postcards. Greetings from New York City features a four-layer die cut diorama of the city's skyline, as well as four such postcards highlighting the best parts of the Big Apple. But this book also includes loads of fun facts about everything from songs with lyrics about New York to trivia about the people, the neighborhoods, and the culture of this one-of-a-kind town. It's the perfect keepsake for anyone nostalgic for days spent popping in and out of subways and taxi cabs &#151; or anyone who's ever dreamed of doing it.
