Customer Reviews

Received today, Map Book was advertised as Third Edition. Was in fact, FIRST EDITION. Also, advertised as used in GOOD condition, received in POOR condition with writing within pages AND torn covers.

I will be vacationing in Connecticut in the near future and needed a detail map of the State. this will be of greatvalue.

Trying to navigate across the state with this is impossible. Rather than a standard atlas - where the end of the page helpfully says "continued on map xx", this is organized alphabetically by town - and in many cases the map doesn't even hint at where you should look as your road runs off the page. Strangely, although owned by the same parent company - American Maps uses this poorly organized way, while Hagstrom Maps are easy to follow and use.
