Customer Reviews

This book is similar to Jamey Abersold's play-along series and is Volume 141. The pianist on the CD is Tony Nalker The CD is an expected split track/melody on 1 and full stereo on 2. That means there are two tracks for each tune with a brilliant orchestration to support your play-along. I recommend this series for practicing as it is very well executed by the band and recorded in excellent quality. The pieces are on lead sheets for C Treble, Bb, Eb and C bass instruments. The included tunes are presented on lead sheets (like the Jamey Abersold editions): Jazz Play-Along titles and tracks: Emily In Love In Vain My Foolish Heart My Heart Stood Still A Sleepin' Bee Suicide is Painless (Song from M*A*S*H) Sweet and Lovely Tenderly Who Can I Turn To Witchcraft Just a note - there is no explanation of the individual pieces or theory behind any of these pieces. This is a play-along book, not a theory class. If this approach is what you are looking for, also check out the other Hal Leonard selections of play-along books. You will find an impressive set of over 164 different volumes. Bill Evans also appears in an earlier volume (volume 37 #00843033 [...]) The earlier volume song list contains these pieces: Funkallero My Bells One For Helen The Opener Orbit Show-Type Tune (Tune For A Lyric) 34 Skidoo Time Remembered Turn Out The Stars Waltz For Debby.
