

The book was found

Roman Sculpture (Yale Publications In The History Of Art)

Synopsis

Roman sculpture was an integral part of Roman life, and the Romans placed statues and reliefs in their fora, basilicas, temples, and public baths, as well as in their houses, villas, gardens, and tombs. In this beautifully illustrated book—the first in almost a century devoted solely to Roman sculpture—Diana E. E. Kleiner discusses all the major public and private monuments in Rome, as well as many less well known monuments in the capital and elsewhere in the empire. She examines art commissioned by the imperial elite and by private patrons, including freedmen and slaves, and she also highlights monuments honoring women and children. Kleiner demonstrates that the social, ethnic, and geographical diversity of Roman patronage led to an art that was eclectic and characterized by varying styles, often tied to the social status of the patron. She also examines the interrelations between works produced for different kinds of patrons. Kleiner begins with a long thematic introduction that describes Rome and its empire, characterizes patrons from the capital and the provinces, discusses the position of the artist in Roman society and the materials he used, and presents a history of the study of Roman art. The remaining chapters constitute a chronological examination of Roman sculpture from the foundation of Rome in 753 B.C. to the transfer of the capital to Constantinople in A.D. 330. In each period the monuments are divided by type, for example, portraiture, state relief sculpture, the art of freedmen, and provincial art. Throughout, Kleiner treats Roman sculpture in its cultural, political, and social contexts and, wherever possible, as an element of the architectural complex in which it was set.

Book Information

Series: Yale Publications in the History of Art

Paperback: 489 pages

Publisher: Yale University Press; Reissue edition (September 28, 1994)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 0300059485

ISBN-13: 978-0300059489

Product Dimensions: 8.7 x 1.2 x 11.3 inches

Shipping Weight: 3.8 pounds (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 4.5 out of 5 stars 4 customer reviews

Best Sellers Rank: #413,467 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #26 in Books > Textbooks > Humanities > Visual Arts > Sculpture #155 in Books > Arts & Photography > Sculpture > Appreciation #3186 in Books > Arts & Photography > History & Criticism > History

Customer Reviews

Diana E. E. Kleiner is Dunham Professor of History of Art and Classics at Yale University.

Ms. Kleiner does indeed show how eclectic Roman sculpture is/was. But she also shows and explains how artists wrought texture out of stone, their flare for facial features, the thoughtful tilt of the head or the significance of a raised eyebrow. There is more to Romans than conquest. This book makes that clear. This book also does an excellent job of relating historical events to tastes in sculpture.

Amazing book

Great Transaction! Perfect for school!

This book is part of what I have to read in my introduction course in greek/roman art. In this respect it is maby not optimal, the autor focuses too much on works of art that no longer excicsts, and works that aren't that well known. I wish she would focus more on the really famous pieces. What is realle good is that it follows the Emperors cronologically, and that makes it easier too understand the connecton between art and society. For people with special interests in the field, it is probably wonderfull, but with 460 pages it is long and a bit too much information for a new student.

Download to continue reading...

Roman Sculpture (Yale Publications in the History of Art) The William Blackstone Collection in the Yale Law Library: A Bibliographical Catalogue (Yale Law Library Publications, No. 6.) A Sculpture Reader: Contemporary Sculpture Since 1980 (Perspectives in Contemporary Sculpture) The Rothschild Canticles: Art and Mysticism in Flanders and the Rhineland circa 1300 (Yale Publications in the History of Art) Alexander: The Great Leader and Hero of Macedonia and Ancient Greece (European History, Ancient History, Ancient Rome, Ancient Greece, Egyptian History, Roman Empire, Roman History) Ingres's Eroticized Bodies: Retracing the Serpentine Line (Yale Publications in the History of Art) Excavations at the Indian Creek Site, Antigua, West Indies (Yale University Publications in Anthropology) The Prehistory of Nevis, a Small Island in the Lesser Antilles (Yale University Publications in Anthropology) The Excavations at Corozal, Venezuela: Stratigraphy and Ceramic Seriation (Yale University Publications in Anthropology) The Sculpture of Charles Wheeler (British Sculptors and Sculpture) Conversations on Sculpture (Perspectives in

Contemporary Sculpture) The Art and Architecture of the Ancient Orient (The Yale University Press Pelican History of Art) The Art and Architecture of Islam, 1250–1800 (The Yale University Press Pelican History of Art Series) Looking at Greek and Roman Sculpture in Stone: A Guide to Terms, Styles, and Techniques The Language of the Muses: The Dialogue between Roman and Greek Sculpture World History, Ancient History, Asian History, United States History, European History, Russian History, Indian History, African History. (world history) A Pocket Dictionary of Roman Emperors (Getty Trust Publications: J. Paul Getty Museum) Roman Lives: A Selection of Eight Roman Lives (Oxford World's Classics) Roman Religion (Cambridge Introduction to Roman Civilization) The Making of Moral Theology: A Study of the Roman Catholic Tradition (Study of the Roman Catholic Tradition (the Martin D'Arcy Mem)

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help