Customer Reviews

Boris Basso Benelli is a native Chilean with a passion for his country's food. After working as head chef in a top restaurant in Valparaiso he co-founded a cooking school where he now runs classes on Chilean cuisine.

Excellent recepies! you are going to love this book! I decided to buy this for my boyfriend's mum, she left Chile almost 22 years ago, so this was really special for her. Im so glad she could remember her old times with this wonderful flavors! thank u so much to the seller, the book arrived on time and in perfect conditions

Very well written and beautifully illustrated (dishes and scenes). Very interesting background (historical, cultural, culinary) information. Authentic recipes that range from excellent to average. Very good section on drinks. Definitely worth buying. Luisa Becker's book is full of recipes, some of which are superb. Excellent 'recetario' (recipe collection). Also worth acquiring.

I had the pleasure of taking a cooking class with the author, Boris Basso Benelli, and getting his book was just a "must have!" As a matter of fact, both my partner and I bought it to surprise the other!! Oops! It is all the recipes for the foods we loved on our visit to Chile and specifically Valparaiso, and then some. Boris has captured it all! Highly recommend!

Received this book recently and love, love it! The recipes are authentic and easy to make! The author also teaches cooking classes in Chile and we took one recently and it was fabulous! Great book if you want to learn a new cuisine!

Had some recipes that were very different from the cuisine I am used to but also others that looked very good.

A nice blend of some traditional recipes and other new ones that have a Chilean feel. Really good to have a drinks section too.

Wife loved it for an Xmas gift. She's ready to try all the recipies.

Great step by step pictures
