Tehillim : With English Translation

Synopsis

Translators: Y.B. Marcus, Nissen Mangel, Eliyahu Touger. Hebrew/English. Tehillim is recited by Jewish people collectively and individually, as the desire occurs to offer praise and thanksgiving to G-d; or alternatively, in times of crisis and need, as a form of supplication, and even as a venue to express regret for sin. The Tzemach Tzedek said, "If one would only know the power of verses in Tehillim, and their effect on high, one would recite them continuously. The verses of Tehillim transcend all barriers and ascend higher and higher, imploring the Master of the Universe until they achieve results of kindness and mercy.

Text: Hebrew, English

This is a hard-backed book of Psalms in Hebrew and in English. I appreciate the way that the book is organized for reading at the appropriate days and to read both the Hebrew and English is very wonderful. The book also contains some useful commentary and notes. However, the version I received had a brown cover rather than the blue in the photo. This is a minor detail and does not detract from the valuable contents of the Psalms/Tehillim.

This is a new Kehot version of the classic Ohel Yossef Yitzchak Tehillim, however with a much updated typography, fonts and spacing, making this a pleasure to read and go through. Enjoy!

My Israeli husband loves this as it is true to what he has in his homeland. I love it because I can't read Hebrew and it has English translation all in one book!

Wonderful book of Tehillim (Psalms) in both Hebrew and English. Great to carry along with you. Nice quality hardcover book with beautiful lettering on the cover, and nice print throughout. Recommended!

Language was clear and easy to understand. Captures the spirit of the Hebrew language. I felt like I was back in biblical times.

Good Quality. Satisfied!
