1001 All-natural Secrets To A Pest-free Property

Synopsis

If they are flying, crawling, burrowing or sneaking in to your home or garden, this book has the solution. Do you hate spiders? Has your house been invaded by ants, termites or cockroaches? Is your garden a feeding ground for caterpillars, aphids, mites or grasshoppers? Are you tired of rabbits or deer eating from the vegetable garden you worked so hard to create? Are raccoons after your trash or tearing up your lawn? Is your property infested with mice or moles? Does your neighbor's dog or cat cause you problems every day? Or would you simply like to enjoy your summer evenings without mosquitoes, flies or yellow jackets? This book offers powerful, all-natural solutions to these problems -- and hundreds more. Every bug, pest, critter and animal related problem you can think of is covered in this comprehensive, detailed and creative book. And every one of the 1001 solutions in this book avoids the use of any kind of pesticide or other poison that could potentially cause harm to our families, our communities, and our natural environment. There are over 2 billion pesticides manufactured in the United States every year. In 2002, more than 3.2 million people suffered medically related side effects from the use of pesticides. By using the simple, tried and true solutions provided in 1001 All Natural Secrets to a Pest-Free Property, you can make a significant contribution to reducing the damage caused by pesticides and other poisons. This book has been designed to make it easy for you to find the information you need and gives you precise and clear answers to all your pest control questions. Protect your property and your family's health today! No one knows more about natural pest control than world renowned Dr. Myles H. Bader. He has spent countless hours over more than ten years of research to find the answers you need to know in order to keep your home, garden and grounds free of insects and critters of all kinds. Most importantly, Dr. Bader shows you how to do this without the use of poisons and toxic preparations.

Dr. Bader was also a professor, teaching health services. He has counseled in areas of weight control, exercise physiology, stress management, all areas of nutrition and has lectured extensively on anti-aging for 30 years. He has also established prevention and executive health programs for numerous safety departments, city governments, and Fortune 500 companies.

A lot of old time practices for a lot of old time problems. Some are well known, some not, but written in a short folksy voice that is entertaining. I am not sure every solution works, but they are fun and novel to read. He has a few things for about every situation from mice to moths A lot of the solutions are not store bought or expensive, and most solutions are conveyed in 3 or 4 sentences with a bit of "watch out for consequences" using wit and humor. You will find yourself reading more than the thing you were looking up just because it is entertaining. He puts a few cartoon drawings in for fun as well. My in-laws read ours and wanted one for themselves and another for their friend.

1001 All-natural Secrets to a Pest-free Property This book contains a wealth of information on pest control without the use of traps or poisons. I bought my first copy a few years ago and have proved some of the processes (mice and spiders). Have not seen a mouse in two years. Spiders leave when I remember to do the simple treatment. This book order was for one of our daughters (finally decided that the old-folks may know a thing-or-two). Very pleased with the book. Have a nice day.

Lot of great ideas. Finally got rid of those pest cats from using my flower bed as a litter box. Very handy book.

I expected more. I wanted something for squirrels in the attic and this did not address that issue. When I opened the package it was evident that this had come from a smoking environment - aired it out in the garage for a week or so.

Good information.

I think this book is overrated! I would not buy it again!

If you want to get rid of pests naturally without a lot of chemicals, this is a good book.
