Customer Reviews

I finally found this book after years of searching. I used to have one of the first editions of "WITHOUT FEATHERS", but lost it in the many moves I have made. Woody Allen is a magnificent writer and his humor cannot be beat. He is a true genius and it shows in this book. I especially recommend reading "the whore of mensa" , and "THE DEADSEA SCROLLS". This book has always cheered me up when I am down and still does.

I purchased Without Feathers in preparation for a performance of "God" and "Death", and because it was not in my home library. This was the most entertaining of short essays and gobs of Woody Allen's humor and it was a joy to read. The plays were a delight to perform.

Good product. Fast shipping. Funny book.

Well, what can I say? This was written back in the early 70s but isn't dated and provokes a proverbial "laugh out loud" on the odd occasion. The humour is predictable, but not (I think) formulaic... probably represents Woody Allen's golden period, simple down-to-earth observations and silly notes to himself. The two plays, especially "Death", are particularly good and show the dialogue is typical Woody Allen in top-form (eg. dealing with a Kafka-esque situation).

Good reading

It's Woody Allen, man! Comedy genius - a lot of it is completely off the wall stuff that had me in fits.

This was the greatest buy I have ever done. Holy hell!! I mean c'mon, it was fantastic. Right on time

Well worth buying and reading. Reading a humor book of short stories by one author all at once is not as good as spacing each story by reading something else. Too much like eating three desserts at once.
