A Mail Order Bride's Hope

Synopsis

A mail order bride longing for open skies, a farmer looking for a family, and an unexpected tragedy. Will love and strength conquer? Grace Owens has always longed for adventure. Being a restless spirit, the stories that came from the West fired her blood. So when her parish in Pittsburg brings a newspaper ad to her attention, her decision is made. She agrees to become a mail order bride and marry a man she has never met. Alonzo Forrester has everything he wants, except a wife and family. When Grace arrives on the train to be his, he thinks that everything will fall into place. But when tragedy strikes under the open skies of Montana, Grace finds herself thrown into caring for a farm and ailing husband with no experience in either. Can she muster the strength and courage to carry out the tasks ahead? Can Grace and Alonzo build a home and family together in this unforgiving land? Will they find love together? AUTHOR'S NOTE: This is a 65-page stand-alone story with an HEA, so no cliff-hangers.

Customer Reviews

What a lovely warm hearted story Faith Crawford has crafted. Grace, the mail Order Bride was such a determined and strong woman. She never complained and never gave up. I could not stop reading this book. Thank you Faith for sharing your talent.

Very good stories. ..all were interesting. ..would recommend this book for all...a great collection of Brides and different scenarios. ..than9

Every single story in this book is exceptional! I love the way each story is told. Each story you can't wait to find out how each problem is solved. Don't jump to the end, let it unravel its self.

i really enjoyed this story. I loved that everything took a lot of work and compromise for both of them.

Great short story, very strong woman in those. Love this author.

Not well researched but stories cute. Hay fever is allergies to pollen. It is not contagious and doesn't kill people. Other inconsistencies.

Loved it

Good book
