We are fortunate to live close to San Francisco and have been to Greens several times, so when I saw the cookbook, I had to have it. I have used and enjoyed it since 1987. Everything I have ever cooked from it is fabulous. A special favorite is the leek and mustard tart. I'm on .com today because I served the tart to my sister-in-law and niece last month and they asked me to send them not just the recipe but the cookbook. The recipes are complex and have a lot of ingredients, but that is what makes them taste so wonderful.. Don't leave anything out! Fortunately here in California the ingredients are all available at our neighborhood grocery. My husband jokes that even the most simple recipe in the book takes at least an hour to prepare, and it's true. You think, "This looks simple; it can't take very long," then it does take very long. But it's worth it. By the way, my husband is able to use the book just fine, and he is definitely a novice cook. Believe it or not, my husband and I have been to France and Italy, and nothing we ate there was as good as the recipes in this book. We also enjoy the cookbook Fields of Green by Anne Sommerville, (who took over Greens after Deborah Madison left, I think), but this is our favorite of the two. Happy cooking! Happy eating!

I have been to The Greens Restaurant in San Francisco a number of times since 1991, including one special occasion: my best friend's wedding reception in 1996. The restaurant is superb, one of the best in SF and in any city! My husband turned me on to the cook book back in 1992, and since then we refer to it more often than The Joy of Cooking. Our favorite recipes include the mushroom pizza with jack and dry jack cheese, and the mushroom lasagne. These are not beginner's recipes, but the directions are easy to follow if you're familiar with all the standard cooking techniques. The recipes are out of this world!! personally am not a vegetarian, but these recipes take your vegetables and taste buds beyond your wildest dreams. I would recommend this cook book to anyone who likes cooking and eating fine food. If you're looking for easy recipes that take 10 minutes, you'll have to settle for hamburger helper or kraft macaroni and cheese... this is not the place for you! But if you love cooking and love trying new recipes, this is one to add to your collection.

I am a vegetarian (since 1977), and am thrilled out of my mind to find an elegant restaurant for even non-veggie people to enjoy vegetarianly! A fine Bay Area destination. Since I am such a fan of the restaurant, and fancy myself quite the gourmet and gourmand, it is wonderful to have this recipe book in my arsenal. I could not be happier!

This is a classic, vegetarian cuisine, elevated to haute cuisine

Love this cookbook. Tried a few of the recipes and they all turned out great!

This is my second vegetarian cookbook from Deborah Madison. I hosted a dinner party and had invited an avid hunter. Although I haven't changed his eating, he said the Artichoke and mushroom filo dough ranked up there on his favorites. Thank you Deborah for helping my family eat better!!!!

Every recipe I tried from this book is sublime. Its fantastic when I want to make something truly gourmet from fresh homegrown or farmer's market produce. As other reviewers have said, the recipes are time consuming, not for everyday use, but for special meals.

Wonderful vegetarian recipes. Use it all the time. A great compliment to non-vegetarian meals, also. Buy this book, you won't regret it.
