Antique Bottle & Glass Collector Magazine, September 2012 Issue, Digital Edition

Synopsis

Antique Bottle & Glass Collector Magazine is the premier publication for the antique bottle and glass enthusiast. It is the largest subscription monthly publication in the industry. Each issue contains great articles on antique bottles, jars, glass and related items. Show reports and an up to date show calendar are also included. Each issue is part color and part b&w. The digital edition contains the articles from the noted edition, and does not contain the advertisements and classified ads which are in the print edition, by regulation. These are available on our web site at:

www.americanglassgallery.com Annual subscription information and related links can also be found at www.americanglassgallery.com Articles contained in the September 2012 issue: Affordable Flasks - There is great glass that makes sense " with fewer dollars. An article on collectible flasks which are not at the high end of the collectors' market Connecticut's Iron Pontil Soda Bottles and Proprietors - Part Two: The Hartford Bottles. A look into the Hartford, CT iron-pontil soda bottles; the proprietors, their products and dates of manufacture. The Lowly Pitcher's Castoria - We are still a little "lax" getting to the bottom of the whole story. As one of the most common bottles found in dumps, Dr. Pitcher's Castoria has name recognition throughout the collectors' world. However, there is more history here to be learned. (not so) Down in the Dumps. Recollections of various dumps, by a lifelong bottle digger and collector. Fruit Jar Rambles. Collection of mini articles on the CFJ GO Improved Tobacco Jar; Abbe Stoneware, and the MonopolWriters' Contest In The Medicine Chest - Pontiled Aqua Bitters. Details on seven bottles in this category. Reno's FOHBC Show is a Winner! - Good weather, good fun, good bottles " and even better friends. A report on the Show, with pictures. Heard it through the Grapevine. Brief information on relevant topics, including three milestone announcements from the Hutchinson Bottle Collectors' Association Gathering at the 2012 Reno FOHBC Expo Letters Show Schedule

Customer Reviews

I collect antique and "vintage" beer, whiskey, soda, and medicine bottles. I like this for its color pictures, useful and well-written articles, and the fact that it isn't filled with articles about Avon and Jim Beam bottles, neither of which I collect. I will probably order the next issue, and if I like it as well, perhaps a subscription.
