From My Bubbie's Kitchen: Recipes To Nourish The Body & Soul (A Treasury Of Jewish Holiday Dishes Book 6)

Synopsis

Three generations of women have contributed their best-loved dishes to this collection of 100 recipes, which includes not only traditional Jewish foods like gefilte fish, chopped liver and chicken soup, but also lower-fat and vegetarian variations, and imaginative modern day desserts. This is comfort food at its best: Bubbie Mary's potato knishes; Aunt Gert's crispy Brussels sprouts; Mama Anne's cheese blintzes, luchen kugel, breaded veal cutlets, and her amazing 4-leaf clover Jell-O mold. Lori devotes three pages to cholent, a hearty Sabbath stew of beef brisket, chicken and potatoes simmered for hours in a rich broth, and even offers tips for dealing with your butcher to get the right cut of meat. International measurements and names of ingredients are included in the index.

Customer Reviews

Where do I start? This book has so many of my favorite recipes. If you have not tried these, I cannot recommend them enough: sweet and sour meatballs (the best you will ever have), lasagna roll-ups (easy dinner that your kids can help make), macaroni and cheese, spaghetti and cottage cheese (don't knock it until you've tried it), tuna fish salad (this recipe can't be beat), candied sweet potatoes, cheese blintzes, haroset, kishke, kreplach, luchen kugel (incomparable), potato knishes, and the chocolate chip cake (heavenly). I highly recommend this to everyone, whatever your culinary abilities are.

The chicken soup made from the recipe in this book is the best I've had. A lot of chicken soups are either too watery or too salty, but this one seems to have a perfect balance of flavors that doesn't nullify the chicken taste. Excellent!
