"If you're in the mood for a light-hearted, infographic-filled travel book for all destinations and destination types, then this is what you want to pick up." (Doobybrain 2013-02-17)

Not sure what to say other than I need to buy one for myself. I purchased it as a gift and my friend loved it (she's a traveler). An example of how cool it is: It has a US map with oddly named cities from each state and you can even look up directions to get there. Great gift, and resource, for any traveler or wannabe.

Great illustrations and a fantastic book. I've learned so many great facts from it.

We gave it to our 13 year old for Christmas, she couldn't put it down all day!!!

very nice literature, a little bit of everything. Good to show children over 7

I got this book for someone as graduation gift, but looked through it before wrapping it. The illustrations are fun and interesting and the topics are great! This would make a great coffee table book that would be a conversation starter. I would like to think its a gift that someone would actually like to receive because I would!

A big hit as a nice white elephant gift(we do the gift exchange without gag gifts). Once people started flipping through it, they wanted it!

Super fast delivery. Was a gift for a friends boyfriend that I don't really know too well. He thought it was the coolest book ever. I scared through it and now want one for myself!! Kinda cool coffee table book!!

My 10 year old grandson saw this in a bookstore and unbeknownst to him i later purchased it. when i gave it to him he jumped into my arms he was so excited. if you know anyone who likes facts and numbers and geography, it will be a big hit.
