From what my daughter tells me, I could not have picked a more perfect birthday gift for my granddaughter! the two of them immediately "consulted" each other and decided to use the book to make a cookie-type dessert. It is such a well-illustrated book that my two year old grandson was able to look at the pictures and "help" decorate the bear-type cookie which was made.

I wouldn't say this was for a toddler. Mom needs to do most of these recipes. But there are fun ideas.

Not as many great recipes as I was hoping for. I have a pretty picky eater tho.

This was a gift for my grandson. My daughter-in-law was excited to try the recipes and liked the pictures. I have looked for a book for cooking with little ones and this was bright, interesting, and the dishes were not just snacks.

I got this for my two-year-old grandson. Nice book.

Bought this book for my nephew who turned one last month. His parents wanted books as gifts and since I know everyone will be giving story and other learning books, I looked for cooking books for kids so my gift will be unique! This book is a perfect starter book for your mini cooks. I will definitely buy one for my daughter as well when the time comes. The recipes are easy and instructions and photos are very well done.

It is ok. I think I could have found similar recipes on the Internet, but who has the time with a toddler? I prefer my Sesame Street cookbooks more.

This book is beautifully illustrated and has great menu ideas to make with your kiddo.
