I have read a lot of Paris Travel Books and find they all carry pretty much the same information, some better than others. What made this book interesting was the way in which it was organized around the authors opinion of what are the very best "things" to see in Paris. A base from which to agree or disagree.

This is a great supplement to the Fodor's Paris 2014. I had both and used them both. This gives a little more information and photos too of the top spots. Really enjoyed the book. You need to get both of them. Loved it!

we are going on a trip, this book is the best one for Paris. Highlights the main things you want to see. good map, good short details on everything a tourist needs to know.

I think this book will be a big help to me showing my two Granddaughters the wonders of Paris next June. Since it has 25 years since I have been there, I am sure I will need help !

Great book with excellent map to take with you. Covers all key attractions and clearly spells out what is in each district (arr.).

The book is great and so was service and price. It will be very helpful when I go to Paris and is small to carry.

This book helped me immensely through my travel to Paris! It's easy to read maps of Paris, each important district, and metro map were useful. It's an easy to follow guide to help cover as much ground as possible. I wouldn't have been able to do half of what I did and saw if I didn't get Fodor's guide. I bought 4 other Paris travel books and found this to be most efficient for all purposes. It's size is economical too to fit perfectly in a small, slender pocketbook! I highly recommend this to carry with at all times during your trip.

LOVED THIS BOOK...SAVED OUT TRIP!!!!!!!!!!!!!! MY 11 YEAR OLD READ THIS BOOK FROM COVER TO COVER...EVERYTHING YOU NEED IS IN THERE.
