Celebrity Jumping Exercises

Synopsis

An ideal training guide with simple explanations of the different exercises and their aims. The contributors are all Olympic riders or trainers at the very top of eventing. Their achievements include World, European and Olympic medals, Badminton and numerous Burghley Horse Trial wins. It has commented sequential photographs and notes as to when to use the exercises, when not to and how to fix common problems. It also includes photographs of the celebrity riders and their training philosophies.

Caroline Orme trained as a working pupil at The Catherston Stud with Jennie Loriston-Clarke, at Aston Park with Gill Watson and at The Wirral. As a BHSII she is a part-time freelance instructor and hunts with the Berks and Bucks Draghounds. Caroline lives near Andover.

Each celebrity brings his or her style to the exercises described. And so, learning how to jump is that much more interesting since the exercises never get too repetitive or boring. One drawback is that the exercises are classified by the name of the trainer, and not in the order of difficulty, - yes the book has the instructions on how to start a young horse or a young rider over jumps, but you won't find those on the first page.
