Rebecca Jones is an English illustrator living in Australia. After graduating from art school in Winchester, she moved to London, where she worked as a textile designer. She worked there for a few years, until her restlessness had her flying off to Australia in search of adventure.

This book is filled with original art, each image made up of beautiful flower patterns or flower and butterfly patterns, all intricately detailed in beautiful patterns that will inspire you and the recipients will love. This book is made up of light weight card stock paper and all of markers bleed through the paper, but this paper is a joy to color on with colored pencils, you get bright smooth colors that pop from the page. Gel pens leave a very very light shadowing. Each card when cut out and folded is a square 5 1/2 x 5 1/2 inches. I love this book and I know my grandchildren will also love coloring these special cards and sending them.1. This 10 5/8" x 11" book is made up of:a. 24 cut out cards that fold in half,i. Each card has a beautiful floral pattern and many have butterflies.ii. The back of each folded card will have a special signature oval that says colored by.iii. Inside each card is plenty of room to add your personal message Plus a flower to color in the corner of the first page, and a wreath to color on the other inside page.b. You will also find 24 envelopes to color, cut out, and fold following the light indentations on each envelope, these might be difficult to see in dim light but they are there and easy to follow. The envelopes have a few artistically placed flowers and/or butterflies on one side and a full page of small flowers and/or butterflies on the other side.c. The last page is made up of 24 round stickers to close your envelopes these are floral and butterflies, in pastel colors.2. Every coloring page is made of light weight card stock paper3. All my markers both Alcohol based (Sharpies, Copic, Bic) and Water based (Triplus, Koi, and TomBow) bleed through this paper enough to ruin the cards & envelopes.4. Gel pens leave a very very light shadowing on the back of each page ,5. Colored pencils are perfect for these cards and envelopes.6. I am adding pictures to help you decide if this book is just right for you and later I will add some colored examples.

These greeting cards and envelopes are so beautiful and are a lovely treat for someone you want to send a greeting card to. After these are colored and given, they are like a gift in themselves. I've enjoyed being able to send them as greeting cards. The heavy paper is great if one uses gel pens for coloring. Personally, I use a combination of gel pens AND colored pencils to obtain a beautiful effect and add unique and beautiful stickers for the message inside the card.

The cards are nice, easy to color. You must fold the envelopes, and yes, the fold markings are faint.

These cards and envelopes are so cool! So far, these by Rebecca Jones never fail to impress. So much more personal to color these all occasion cards with envelopes than sending pre-printed cards. I like to get them as much as I like to send them! The stickers are a really sweet added bonus! Can't say enough about these...

The artwork is beautiful but many of the details are very small, making each design take longer than they appeared to on the cover. I found a lot of the artwork to look repetitive. I liked the stickers but found it hard to fold the cards into envelopes--the instructions were not clear. I might just use a regular envelope. I do love the art but wish there were some easier designs for a quick card and better envelopes.

Butterflies took our coloring club by storm! We can't keep enough of these cards. We finally had to go to another book of coloring pages To keep the peace among the group. We will be doing these again next June 2017! We may end up buying another book to go with the present one on hand because of the popularity of this book of cards.

Love these! I had some gal pals over to color with me and it was fun! I like the practicality of a greeting card combined with the fun of coloring. Be prepared to spend time on these when using markers because of the detail. However, if you use colored pencils, you can cover a larger area and save a bit of time. Fun project with adults and kids alike! Who doesn't like receiving a card that someone picked out and colored especially for them, including the envelope? I also bought the "Summertime" one, and love it just as much!

I bought this book for my 91 year old Mother-in-law, who enjoys coloring while she fights lung cancer. She has been turning her coloring pages into cards, so I thought she would enjoy the cards and envelopes in this book. She has colored and sent quite a few and all the recipients have been thankful to receive messages from her.
