Fun and educational!

This is a coloring book of Doug the Pug designs and activity pages. Doug starts off with a whirlwind trip around the United States and then takes it to the next level by traveling around the world. The designs hark back to famous locations or items for which each locale is famous (coffee in Seattle, poutine in Canada, the Hollywood sign in Los Angeles, etc.) Front and center, though, is the star of the book Doug the Pug. Some of the designs are detailed but not intricate and hard to color. The activity pages (word search, mazes, etc.) are all fairly easy and could be done fairly easily by an older child. This is what I found while coloring in this book and testing it with my coloring medium. 90 Doug the Pug design and activity pages (75 line drawing pages and 15 activity pages.) Printed on both sides of the page; no two-page spread designs. Paper is heavyweight, white, somewhat smooth, and non-perforated. The binding is a hybrid of glue and sewn (many little stitches.) You cannot snip a few threads to remove pages but would have to cut pages out if you wish to remove them from the book. The designs merge into the binding area and spread to the edges of all sides. I can open the book fairly flat for coloring by breaking the spine. Alcohol-based markers bleed through the page. If you use these, you will have ink seep through and mar the design on the back of the page. Water-based markers, gel pens and India ink pens do not bleed through the page; however, they do leave the slightly shadow on the backside of the page. Colored pencils work well with the paper. I was able to blend, layer the same and multiple colors using both oil and wax-based pencils with ease.

This book is so adorable! I'd never heard of the Doug the Pug series until the publisher sent me this coloring book to take a look at. It's so clever and fun and obviously the perfect gift for any pug lovers as well as dog lovers in your life. It's professionally published so the paper and binding is great. You won't be disappointed.

My 9 year old son loves pugs and loves this book. Very cute depictions of Doug traveling around the work. Great for a road trip.

Great coloring book of Doug the Pugs adventures! Great quality paper and beautifully illustrated!

My wife follows Doug the Pug on social media and coloring helps her reduce stress, so this was perfect for her.

Adorable and fun. Obviously.
