"This comprehensive volume of tough questions and instructive insights is a 'must-have' for all serious teachers, students, and practitioners of Christian sexual ethics in the church. The authors not only attend to practical dilemmas that arise within everyday situations of ministerial leadership but also offer a holistic approach to sexuality as one aspect of the complex humanity of church leaders." --Traci C. I have recommended the book to our Board of Ministry to use with commissioned peer group. A must read for all clergy and laity who are concerned about sexual misconduct in our faith communities today.

This book is great for teaching what not to do. It focuses on integrity and ideas for your ministry with people. A must have for every pastor or clergy.
