Betrayed (Ettie Smith Amish Mysteries Book 7)

Synopsis

When Amish woman, Paula Peters, is brutally attacked and left for dead, Detective Kelly requests that elderly Ettie Smith and her sister, Elsa-May, ask questions within their Amish community. The detective arrests a local woman for the attack, but Ettie and Elsa-May suspect that she has been framed. When they discover that the woman's husband, Cameron George, is Paula's former boss, they are more than certain they're right. The problem is, Cameron is a former police officer, and Detective Kelly insists that Ettie is wrong about him. When Detective Kelly finally concedes that the woman might have been framed, he turns his suspicions to a young Amish man. Can Ettie and Elsa-May find evidence that Cameron has framed his wife before Kelly arrests another innocent person for the crime? Will Paula wake up and identify the person responsible for assaulting her? Customer Reviews

Absolutely loved this book.I love Ettie and Elsa May.The two older Amish ladies sleuths are smart, witty and funny.They always crack the case before Detective Kelly.I highly recommend this book.

It reminded me of "Murder She Wrote"with an Amish twist. I found Etta and her sister very much like two older sisters. They were funny as well as astute observers. When the bumbling police detective couldn't solve the crime because he didn't understand the Amils, the sisters were able to succeed where he failed. I know I aill read all the books in the series.

Excellent mystery as are all of Price's

Love love the series. Only problem they are over to fast and find myself waiting again. Keep up the good work Samantha!

All of the Ettie Smith books are great reads. The mystery and Amish way of life are woven through the book.

Oh My. Another exciting story in book 7. Awesome! I was surprised as to who did it and how it was done. This story will hold your interest so enjoy as much as I did. GAB

I enjoy this series of the Ettie Smith mysteries. The characters are full of fun and each of the books in this series makes me look forward to the next.

Love these books! Can't hardly wait to buy the next one. What a great author.
