Synopsis

Writers wax lyrical about Ireland's spectacular scenery, but it is the people that make a visit to this enchanting country so very special. Meander down the streets of Dublin, explore ancient castles and journey around the lovely Dingle Peninsula-everywhere Irish hospitality prevails. It is impossible to visit without experiencing the warmth and hospitality of the Irish; from the grand manors to the country farmhouses, you will be welcomed as a houseguest rather than a tourist. Along the way, itineraries guide you through the Emerald Isle, from Dublin's fair city to the hauntingly beautiful scenery of Connemara. 5 Regional Countryside Itineraries, Descriptions of over 120 Places to Stay.

Customer Reviews

Lack of real pictures - just artist renderings and not as detailed as I would have expected - I would not waste your money - however the item arrived timely and the packaging was perfect...it was the item NOT the seller

I have used other Karen Brown books which I liked better. This one is not my favorite. Her books are definitely more upscale places to stay but helpful.

This book was written for those travellers with unlimited budgets for accommodations. I don't think I came across any location that was less than 150 Euro a night. I also found it odd that there were only black and white "pencil drawn" illustrations, rather than color photos of the accommodations. Usually, the more $$ you spend to stay somewhere, the more removed you make yourself from the culture you actually came to experience!!
