London has never been so desired or desirable as it right now. Visitors from all over the world are clamoring to be a part of the most exciting city in Europe -- 13 million make the journey from overseas every year. This colorful new guide about Cadogan's home city takes in the fast-changing art galleries, museums, sights, scenes, and shops. The youthful glamour of Notting Hill, the elegance of Knightsbridge, and the gritty chic of Soho are all explored, alongside new sites such as the London Eye and Tate Modern. Lesser-known delights are also revealed, including the latest art discoveries, the best markets, and the quirkiest bookstores. Vastly expanded listings -- more than any other competitive guide -- are clearly mapped and include all the latest places to stay, bars, restaurants, and cafes, including the Cadogan team's own favorite haunts!
