Customer Reviews

I like this book that it features a lot of things to remember when your in Japanbut I think something is missing in other parts. I feel the author was not able tocompletely cater everything. But overall, it a good start to learn their culture and everything.Thanks!

Great guide with a lot of relevant information. My wife and I planned our honeymoon using this guide and it helped us tremendously. Very handy before traveling to Japan.

50 pages of large type, so maybe 20 regular pages of info for $17. Each "best place" took about 1 page of large type.Better value is Eyewitness Travel or National Geographic Traveller. Both cost a little more but have about 400 pages of detailed info, color pictures, maps.I wish I knew before I bought it.

The tips are all available at even a cursory look online. Almost no content. One paragraph per page.
