UNICEF Canada spokesman, husband and father of four!

My 3 year old loves this book along with a couple others by the same people. The songs are fun and very easy for kids to learn and repeat.

I now own several of these sing along books by Barefoot, and they can be hit or miss with my class of 2 year olds. This one, is a HIT! It's got a good beat that the children can easily catch, it is filled with transportation, colors and sounds. But it isn't so overwhelming that it's hard to focus on, which is what I've noticed about some of their books. Anyone with children interest in music and/or transportation theme should get this book!

I recently heard another music therapist use this story with preschoolers, and I had to buy this book for myself! I love the illustrations of the book. This is great to teach colors and encourage vocalization with small children by repeating the sounds all the different modes of transportation make! I am excited that this book comes with a CD also. I haven't listened to it yet, but this book can be used with or without it.

This is our toddler's very favorite book. She knows every verse and lights up when she sees any vehicle and begins to sing. It comes with a CD but also is available on youtube including a looping collection of Barefoot Singalong books. We love these!

I didn't even realize the disc with the song came with it! There's even an instrumental track so the kids can sing along sooo cute My 4yr old is obsessed!

My son was introduced to this book at school. It is a tough to find book but he adores it.

Great book. My 2 and a half boy loves it. Specifically the CD that comes with it.

Perfect condition and great product description.
