Customer Reviews

Not particularly the most informative guidebook I have ever purchased BUT given the almost non-existent guidebooks on Bucharest it did help me in my research. Considering the cost of this guidebook I would recommend it for people planning a trip to Bucharest as it at least gives one a base to start with and covers the major sites.

Piece of literary crap. Virtually no worthwhile content. I've been scammed....and it's not worth the postage nor time to return it. Please note the numerous other travel publications by this outfit. This is the first time that I have given a one star rating.

I have zero idea who wrote these reviews. This is 36 page pamphlet on Bucharest that has no pictures and is written in like 36 font, meaning the whole book was likely about 3 pages long fully typed. Absolutely not what I was expected and there isn't the normal info. Once you open the book, it says "This is a book summary". Seller is lucky I hate returning stuff. Hopefully I can get a proper guide before my upcoming trip.

The information was good - a lot packed into a little book. I would have liked maps and/or photos to be included

The font is so large, there are basically 4 words per page, and the cover picture you see is the only one. And how to you have a travel guide without a single map? Do not buy this.

Reading about Romania's capital should take more than 36 pages and an hour to read it. The font must be for the visually impaired because it's HUGE. At .36 cents per page I am disappointed. However, there was some good information contained in the pamphlet. Be forewarned; this is a pamphlet, not a book.

Do not waste your time or money with this "Travel Guide". It tells you nothing more than basic tips that the internet will tell you. It doesn't even have any maps. It's large font and is only 57 pages.

This is a brief pamphlet at best. We immediately returned it. Do not waste your money.
