Dordogne & The Lot, 4th (Country & Regional Guides - Cadogan)

Synopsis

This lush, rural corner of France where four great rivers meet offers good food, good wine, and good living. The guide bursts with the authors' intimate knowledge of the region. Explore the world's most celebrated vineyards along the Dordogne and Lot rivers, through Bergerac, Saint Emilion, and the medieval city of Cahors, with detailed wine critiques along the way. From Bordeaux to Toulouse, the region's two fascinating cosmopolitan cities, the guide reveals the density of historic and natural treasures--from the earliest known prehistoric art at the Lascaux caves to the beautiful Renaissance town of Sarlat. This guide is illustrated with a stunning section of color photographs to inspire the soon-to-be traveler, and is packed with practical information and useful maps to smooth out the journey.

Customer Reviews

"I must admit to being bowled over by the present offering...information is universally accurate and comprehensive...these guides are beautifully produced and a delight to read and own"--Living France Magazine (UK)"Excellent"--Financial Times (UK)

Four great rivers, the Dordogne, Lot, Garonne and Tarn, rush down from their sources to bring life to this lush, rural corner of France. Since mankind's first art was painted on the caves of Perigord, this region has been rich in life's graces. Its pleasures range from spectacularly carved Romanesque churches and towering chateaux, to mysterious emblems etched ten thousand years ago, to a dinner of foie gras and confits washed down with a fine Bordeaux. This guide offers practical travel advice, over 700 hand-picked places to stay, over 500 restaurants, bars and cafes, wine routes, vintages and chateau visits, as well as the best local markets and food shopping. (5 1/2 x 8 1/2, 484 pages, color photos, maps) --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.
