Customer Reviews

While this is a thick book, it has an immense collection of raw and useful information that you can only receive from experience. This book is full of maps, travel info, local guides, itineraries, great food info, passes that can give you discounts, etc. Also has a bit of cultural and language guidance. The previous negative reviews are irrelevant especially because some appeared before the book's release. We also bought the Japanese language pocket guide from Lonely Planet. Very helpful.

Very poor formatting. Words run together, special characters not defined, odd skips to new pages... it sure doesn't look ready for publication. I checked it against the sample of the same book on iBooks and it's night and day. Now I have to buy that one. They should pull this one until it's fixed.

It's so awesome. I love it. Great job Lonely Planet. I loved it.

Without even opening it, I could see that it was way too thick and heavy to carry around Japan on my upcoming trip, so I am sending it back for something more concise and portable.
