NPR Funniest Driveway Moments: Radio Stories That Won't Let You Go

Synopsis

Selected from the National Public Radio archives, these stories by some of NPR's favorite commentators will keep listeners laughing. A "driveway moment" is when you're so captivated by a story on NPR that you stay in your car to hear it to the end—even if you're sitting in your own driveway. Some are serious, some are touching, and some, like the stories included here, are very, very funny. Literate, intelligent, and droll, each tale is worth hearing again and again, and now you don't have to stay in your car. NPR Funniest Driveway Moments includes stories and interviews from your favorite NPR commentators and guests such as David Sedaris, Sarah Silverman, Carl Reiner, Mel Brooks, Dame Edna, Larry David, Darryl Littleton, Justice Stephen Breyer, Jonathan Winters, Phyllis Diller, Steve Martin, Lily Tomlin, and more.

You're in your car, listening to a story on your local NPR station. Suddenly, you find yourself at your destination—home, work, or parking lot of a grocery store. The story has captured you, and rather than turn the radio off, you stay in your car and listen to the end. You've had a Driveway Moment! Literate, intelligent, and yes, funny, NPR plays host to the brightest personalities in the comedy world. From legends Jonathan Winters, Mel Brooks and Carl Reiner to contemporary favorites Sarah Silverman, David Sedaris and Larry David, here is one collection that will keep you listening with a smile.

What a scandalising waste of MY MONEY. This is a PATHETIC, misrepresented volume..... It is not only, droll, and boring, but it is PAINFULLY N O T humorous or funny. DO NOT believe the propaganda that accompanies this CD. They are deceitful and overreaching in their claims.I REALLY WANT MY MONEY BACK. Did I mention that this really is the PITS?????

NPR has broadcast a number of hilarious conversations over the years, but these are not those. These are talks with people you would assume would be funny. It's mostly interviews with aging comedians - thus it does not appeal to a youth like myself who have only a cursory knowledge of Kathy Griffin.

My only concern is that the discs are only an hour each. I bought it to help me on a 7 hour drive. That's ok. I made them work on the dullest part of the drive and they kept me grinning and even laughing out loud all the way.

I love NPR and have listened to the "This American Life" tapes and CD's every time I go on a long trip. This one was a new addition to my collection and, being spoiled by "This American Life," I was a little disappointed. Some mildly funny stuff, here but no belly laughs. Of course, "Your Mileage May Vary."

I was disappointed. I usually love NPR stories and such. This was short and not very interesting. I expected more from NPR.

I had high hopes for NPR Funniest Driveway Moments, but this was rarely funny. It starts out strong with a great Dame Edna interview and then goes downhill. Not one of the following interviews is very funny. I don't think they were meant to be funny. They were meant to be interviews of famous people. Fine. But don't call it "funny."

This didn't meet the expectation set up in description. If you do get it though, I liked the 2nd disc much better than first .

Having had several "driveway moment" versions, I wasn't as fond of this one as others, yet it had many good stories.
