Customer Reviews

The book mentions some people that can help with logistics such as Saraa and Bata in Murun, however they are only willing to help if you pay them lots of money for a tour. They are not willing to help you with truthful info if you would like to do things independently. Moreover they are willing to lie to get more money, such as we were told we paid more for an English speaking guide but no one spoke English. In Olgii Nazka us quite stingy in the guesthouse and also only interested in money. Otherwise the book is fine and can be helpful although Mongolia is not an easy place to travel to.

This guide was fantastic and very detailed. The language section is really poor though. Mongolian is much more difficult and I learned more from watching youtube videos and using there phrases to help show people what I was trying to say. Everything else was extremely accurate. Have fun in Mongolia!

Very good guide. Helped me enormously when preparing for my first trip there.

Good book to get oriented to the large country

This book was adequate to the task for our trip to Mongolia. The restaurant and hotel information seemed not up to date.

everything as promised

Has a lot of information that is not online

On time and all very good. Thanks
